Week in Review

SOCIAL STUDIES We are continuing with our study of ancient Egypt, exploring their architecture and learning about its famous leaders.

ENGLISH Students will begin to write a five-paragraph essay supporting their thesis statements with evidence. After this assignment, Miss Lee will introduce the ancient Egypt research report.

SCIENCE We are currently studying different volcanic landforms and how it affects eruptions. We will conduct a lab in the coming week, simulating how volcanoes build over time and looking at the impact of eruptions from different types of lava and ash.

CONCERT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE – SANTA BARBARA SYMPHONY Please find in your folder a permission slip for the upcoming field trip. We are in need of chaperones to escort our students to the Granada Theatre on Thursday, January 26 for the Santa Barbara Symphony's Concert for Young People. We will leave campus at 9am and be back by 12pm. We will need at least 7 parents to help. Please email me with how many students you are able to drive. Thank you in advance for making this trip possible.

MASS The 6th graders will lead the school community for the 9am mass on Wednesday, January 11th. Please join us for the liturgy.

BOOK CLUB Our next book club is Goodbye Stranger by Rebecca Halstead. We will meet at the Probers. Please see the attached flyer for details.

SCHOOL TOUR Our next school tour is Tuesday at 9 a.m. If you know a family that is interested, please call the office to RSVP. 805-969-5965
