Week in Review

SCIENCE We spent a fair amount of time discussing the scientific method to prepare for the upcoming science fair. Next week, we will begin studying weathering, erosion, and deposition looking at the impact of water and wind erosion as well as landforms created by sediments that are deposited in the process.

STAR TESTING STAR testing is on Monday and Tuesday, January 23rd and 24th. Please make sure your student gets plenty of sleep and fuel up with a nutritious breakfast.

SB SYMPHONY We will travel to the Granada Theatre for the Santa Barbara Symphony's Concert for Young People on Thursday, January 26th. Thank you to Teri Green, Nancy Coglizer, Deanna Cervantes, Liz Rosedale, and Andrea Krautmann for volunteering to chaperone the students.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS PROJECT Students have received the Catholic Daughters project assignment sheet as well as the rubric. This is a mandatory assignment for religion class and is due on Monday, February 13th.

BOOK CLUB We will meet at the Probers on Monday, January 30th from 7-8pm to discuss the January book club selection Goodbye Stranger by Rebecca Stead.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

-The Spelling Bee will be held on Tuesday, January 31st as part of Student Appreciation Day. Paul Zoltoski and Aria Nafziger will represent the 6th graders. Robert Dunn and Emily Whitney will serve as alternates. Congratulations and best of luck!

-The middle school students will travel to Alpha Resource Center on Wednesday, February 1 for their service project. We are still in need of parents to chaperone from 9:30-11:30am.

-On Thursday, February 2nd, we will head to Bishop to attend mass with local Catholic schools. Each student is asked to bring a can of food that will be donated to a local food bank.

-Move-a-thon – Pledge sheets are due on Wednesday, January 25th to be eligible for the money jump. The Move-a-thon will be held on Friday, February 2nd. Our class color is blue.
