This Week

- PROGRESS REPORTS Please find your student's 2nd trimester progress report in the folder today. Please review and help set goals for the rest of the trimester as it ends on March 10th. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.
- CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK
 - This Sunday we kick off Catholic Schools Week with the 10am school family mass lead by our 3rd graders and Pancake Breakfast in the Parish Hall from 8:30-11:30am.
 - Tuesday is Student Appreciation Day. Students are welcome to wear free dress. Please refer to Mrs. Simolon's email regarding our viewing of the movie Finding Dory.
 - On Wednesday we will travel to Alpha Resource Center as part of our Day of Service.
 - We will head to Bishop on Thursday for a mass with local Catholic schools. We are asking students to bring a non-perishable item to be forwarded to the less fortunate.
 - Friday is the Move-a-thon. Our class color is blue. If you are able to take pictures during the event for our yearbook, please let me know. And please send pictures directly to Mrs. Holtgrewe at ericah@mountcarmelschool.net
- BOOK CLUB We will gather at the Probers at 7pm on Monday to discuss Goodbye Stranger by Rebecca Stead. Please refer to the bookclub flyer for directions.
- SCIENCE FAIR The Science Fair will be held this year on Wednesday, March 29th. We have talked about the required sections as well as deadlines. Students are to start researching for a project idea over the weekend. I have attached the parent information letter which includes due dates. A Google classroom has been set up for students to find announcements and submit their work. The first deadline is a project proposal on Wednesday.
- COMMUNITY SERVICE I hope students are working towards completing their 2nd trimester community service projects. These hours will be due on Friday, March 3rd.
